

Polysius Cement Plant

Palmar de Bravo, Puebla, Mexico

Client

Polysius de mexico, S.A. de C.V.

Project Value

US$300 million

Project Scope

Detail Engineering

Period of Work

2005

Project Description

Polysius was awarded a contract to construct a new 3000 tpd cement plant for a client in Palmar de Bravo, Mexico.

Uhde's scope included the electrical design for power & lighting for the whole facility as well as civil / structural design for auxiliary & material handling buildings, and transport infrastructure. The scope of work also included process, piping & control design for utilities.